Instructors:

Rahul Desai: Rahul has been involved with polocrosse for many years, starting as a young boy growing up in Zimbabwe, Africa. He has played on multiple international teams throughout his career, with the most recent being the 2019 World Cup as a member of Team USA. He was the coach of the 2010 USA Open Team that toured to Zambia and also served as the head coach for the Carolina Polocrosse Club for several years. Rahul has experience coaching players of all ages and levels and enjoys sharing his passion for polocrosse and horsemanship to new players, especially juniors.

Sarah Desai: Sarah has been playing polocrosse for 18 years. She started playing in USPC where she graduated with an "A" on the traditional path. She has evented through Preliminary and won an NCDCTA championship at Third Level. She has taught polocrosse and basic balanced riding for 15 years and has trained top level polocrosse horses for many years with her husband Rahul. She has played in various countries including South Africa and Australia and she was recently the Ladies Team Captain on the 2019 USA World Cup Team. She loves working with players and riders of all levels to achieve a great relationship with their horse and success on the field.
